What's New

Welcome to our 2015-16 catalog! We've spent the past year looking for ways to make your life healthier. Our group of best-selling items hasn't changed, but we've added new products that we think you'll love. Here's a glimpse of the new and noteworthy:

Water Filtration: PuroSmart (page 1), the only portable reverse osmosis filter on the market, attaches to your faucet, eliminating the slow filtration process required with under-sink RO systems. LifeStraw (page 4) travel filters are perfect for camping and for water emergencies. We've also grouped all of our travel and "emergency prep" filters together to make it easier for you to choose the best one for your needs. Aquasana Shower Filters now have a chloramine-removal option to eliminate this ammonia-based toxin, which is becoming more common in large metropolitan areas (page 5). Pristina Concentrate (page 6) makes hexagonal water for better hydration.

pH Products: Our new brand of pH

Meters, HM Meters (page 7), is more economically priced and easier to calibrate than previous models.

Air Purification: Virus Zero has added a wall-mount air purifier in two sizes for germicidal protection in the home (page 8). The Fresh Fridge refrigerator purifier reduces spoilage and helps food last longer (page 10). Fitseal Masks (page 10) keep out viruses and bacteria. Electromagnetic Field Protection: Our new Radio Frequency Meter (page 12), introduced by customer request, gauges emissions from RFs such as smart meters, Wi-Fi and cordless phones. The book Overpowered and the DVDs Take Back Your Power and Evidence of Harm (page 13) are full of new information about EMF and RF sources and dangers. Also check out the Orgone Pendant (page 14) to wear anywhere for easing the effects of EMFS, RF Shielding Foil for radio-frequency protection (page 15), Clarus Clear for cell phones and iPads (page 15), and the Defender Pad for protecting against your laptop's EMFs (page 16). Total Shield EMF devices now offer protection against HAARP, high-frequency waves used by the military (page 14); and a new book addresses HAARP as well as chemtrails, and connects these two technologies (page 36).

Vision Therapy: The Secret of Perfect Vision and Improve Your Eyesight Naturally (page 25) will get you on your way to seeing better than you ever thought possible!

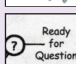

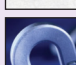

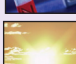

Supplements and Personal Care: African Red Rooibos Tea (page 26) is a superb antioxidant that also tastes good. Vibrant & Clear Wafers increase your energy, while Supplement Boost Spray provides an easy way to consume trace minerals (both on page 28). Elmore Oil Pain Formula (page 30) gives you fast, long-lasting pain relief, and the Himalayan Salt Inhaler (page 31) eases allergies, asthma and other breathing problems. The Sunfriend Sunlight Monitor wristband actually tracks your time in the sun and tells you when you've reached your maximum exposure (page 31).

General Wellness: New from Therasage far-infrared healing pads: a shoulder and neck pad (page 32), a portable sauna with tourmaline (page 32), and Pet Pads (page 35). Also for pets, Shuzi Dog and Cat Collars ease EMF-related stress.

Although we'd love to put every product in our catalog, there simply isn't room.

Our Mission

Our catalog is devoted to products that are on the cutting edge of technology and that, when integrated, provide a holistic approach to keeping the body healthy. We believe that reducing environmental stress is one of the most important factors in keeping the immune system fit and maintaining overall good health. Many people who are concerned with their health take the approach that nutrition and exercise are the only roads that lead to well-being. Although these are certainly important elements, much more has to be done to combat the day-to-day assaults on our immune system. Critical areas include the light that enters our eyes and skin, the water we drink and the air we breathe. Also important are the problems associated with electromagnetic fields, such as radiation emitted from all devices that use electricity (TVs, computers, etc.), geopathic stress zones (vibrations from earth waves or underground water) and radio frequencies. We strive to stay up to date with the newest and highest-quality products that effectively handle problems in all of these areas. We also offer other items that are unique and compatible with our integrated approach to well being.

Very few areas of the country have a pristine water supply. In large cities and even in many small towns, water quality is a major problem that needs to be addressed. Our wide range of filters includes high-end products in each of the three major categories: carbon-based, distillation and reverse osmosis. Choose from a variety of styles, including countertop, under-sink and portable. Whole-house systems are offered for those who want filtered water throughout the home. We also carry the best shower filters to remove chlorine and chemicals. If you want details about what's in your water, consider purchasing a water analysis kit (see page 11).

PuroSmart Portable RO Filter

The only small and portable RO filter on the market! Until now, reverse osmosis filters were available only in large units that had to sit on a countertop or be installed under the sink. PuroSmart is a compact and easy system that attaches to the kitchen faucet. Don't let the small size fool you—PuroSmart makes 15 gallons of water a day! Faucet-mount model hangs directly from the faucet; countertop-mount sits in the included stand and connects to faucet with longer tubing. RO filters substantially reduce chlorine, dirt, heavy metals, chemicals, fluoride and parasites. Replace the carbon-block filter every three months and the RO membrane once a year. Measures 8.25" long, weighs 1 lb. 3 oz. Optional TDS Meter measures total dissolved solids, which confirms that your machine is working to full capacity and helps you monitor when filters need changing.

Aquaspace Water Filters

With specially treated carbons adapted from NASA's space-shuttle technology, these kitchen units come in six models—including energizing units with magnets and an alkalizing option. All of the Aquaspace Aquarius kitchen filters use two high-quality cartridges: a Doulton ceramic (filters down to .2 microns) with granular activated carbon (replace every two years), plus the patented, one-micron Aquaspace compound for additional filtration (lasts for one year). This powerful combo substantially reduces chlorine, chemicals, dirt and sediment, lead, pesticides, parasites and most bacteria. Options include a third filter for fluoride and arsenic removal (replace every six months); and an alkalizing cartridge (lasts one year) that rests on top of the filter and is more suitable for use with an under-sink unit. (Special faucet lets you switch between alkaline and non-alkaline water; see pricing below.) Alkalizing cartridge raises pH to between 9 and 10 depending on water source. Each model is available with Aquaspace's powerful Aquatomic neodymium magnets, increasing your cells' water absorption and hydrating you more quickly. Countertop units have a diverter valve that lets you switch between filtered and non-filtered water. Under-sink units include chrome faucet and installation hardware. Twin units measure 9"W x 5½"D x 12"H; triples measure 15"W x 4½"D x 12"H. (Shipping: $25)

Are you currently buying bottled water? Although what people spend annually varies based on the type of water they buy, how much water they drink, and whether they use bottled water for cooking, the amount can easily total several hundred dollars a year—which means the typical water filter will pay for itself in one year.

This book-and-CD set will show you how music can influence water and how it can affect the body. Pioneering scientist Masaru Emoto exposed water to classical music and photographed the crystals. He developed a system to measure the energy of these photographs, and he assigned physical and emotional healing properties to each piece of music based on the energy. The book describes each musical selection and its healing energies, and shows a photo of the corresponding water crystal. CDs contain 15 classical music tracks. (Hardcover, 52 pages, plus 2 CDs)

Water Filtration & Treatment

Have you ever thought about what would happen if you didn't have access to clean drinking water? Disasters such as earthquakes, power outages, hurricanes and tornadoes can affect the water supply. These filters are all designed for situations where potable water isn't available. Whether you're a "prepper" or whether you just want a backup system, we have filters that will do the job. We're also introducing the LifeStraw, ideal for camping and hiking as well as emergencies.

CWR Gravity-Feed Filters

Polypropylene Model (top); Stainless Unit With 4 Filters

You can make large quantities of pure H₂O with this high-volume unit. Simply pour in water and it drips down into the chamber. UltraGrav ceramic cartridges significantly decrease chlorine, chemicals, sediment, and—most important when you are using surface water—parasites and bacteria. Patented Metalgon media even removes toxic heavy metals and fluoride, a feature that standard ceramics don't have! For maximum filtration, polypropylene model fits up to five filters and stainless up to four, but they can be ordered with two filters. Two cartridges output a half-gallon per hour and last for 1,200 gallons. Also available with upgraded Imperial, a larger cartridge with 54 percent more surface area for greater performance. Poly measures 11¼"W x 28½"H; collapses down to 16¾" for easy storage. Stainless is 19¼"H x 8¼"W; collapses to 13¼."

Poly 2-Filter Standard: $189, 4-Filter Standard: $279

Poly 2-Filter Imperial: $219, 4-Filter Imperial: $325
Stainless 2-Filter: $299, Stainless 4-Filter: $369
Refill Filters: Standard $49, Imperial $69

Waterwise Non-Electric Distiller $387

NEW!

Not even a power outage can stop the Model 1600! Non-electric steam model uses only heat to distill. Great as a backup in emergency situations. Makes up to 16 gallons a day of water a day.

Works on any heat source, including gas stove, wood, propane and charcoal grill. Measures 12" x 12"; weighs 9 lbs. Digital timer included. Two-year warranty.

LifeStraw

NEW!

You'll never have to worry about getting clean drinking water with this small, ingeniously designed filter! Ideal for hiking and camping, emergency preparedness and survival situations, the portable LifeStraw makes contaminated river, stream and other surface water safe to drink. Lasts for 264 gallons or one year of regular use, and removes at least 99.9999 percent of waterborne bacteria and at least 99.9 percent of protozoan cysts, using a hollow-fiber microfiltration membrane. Also reduces turbidity (muddiness) by filtering particulate matter larger than 0.2 microns. No filtering work for you to do: Just sip through the straw! Individual filter weighs only two ounces; comes with mouthpiece cap and lanyard. BPA-free bottle filter holds 23 ounces and features flip-top spout and carabiner. LifeStraws have been distributed in many international disasters and public-health campaigns. (Note: Not suitable for tap water.) This filter was featured on the Discovery Channel's reality show "Survivorman"!

Befit Travel Filters

Instead of buying bottled water when you travel, just use this disposable, maintenance-free filter! Rubber adapter fits any faucet, even an open pipe (just hold adapter in place), making it great for hotels, friend's houses or emergency situations. Only 6½" high, less than 3" wide. Using the same patented Aquaspace compound that's in the company's kitchen models, Model TV-100 filter removes chlorine, chemicals, lead and sediment; the BioFilter version (Model TV-100BF) adds "Bio-Bullet" iodine beads to destroy bacteria and viruses on contact! TV-100 lasts for 250 gallons or 12 months, whichever comes first; 100BF lasts 200 gallons or 12 months. No filter to change; simply replace the whole unit after a year, or sooner if the unit is used often and water seems sluggish. Water comes out of the attached spout. Takes less than 20 seconds to fill a glass.

Befit Travel Filter (Model TV-100): $55.95

Befit Travel BioFilter (Model TV-100BF): $75.95

Basic Filter Types: What's the Difference?

- Ceramic/Carbon Block. Pros: Reasonably priced, effective at removing many contaminants. Cons: Carbon degrades over time; timely filter replacement is key.
- Reverse Osmosis. Pros: Removes more contaminants than carbon. Cons: Takes several hours to fill the tank, removes beneficial minerals, wastes water.
- Distillation. Pros: Removes more contaminants than carbon, no water waste. Cons: Takes several hours to fill the tank, removes beneficial minerals.

Water Filtration & Treatment

Shower filters are designed to reduce exposure to chemicals and chemical vapors. While this problem does not receive as much attention as drinking water, it represents a significant concern. Hot water creates steam vapor that contains the volatile chemicals in the water; the vapors are inhaled and go directly to the bloodstream. Research has shown that people can inhale up to 50% more chlorine and other volatile organic compounds (VOCs) in one 10-minute shower than if they drank two liters of water containing the chemical! A warm shower or bath also opens up the skin's pores, resulting in a high rate of VOC absorption. Trihalomethanes (THMs), which are by-products of chlorine, have been found to be carcinogenic. And don't forget that chlorine has a very drying affect on skin and hair. We've added a filter that reduces chloramines, another chemical coming into widespread use. Make sure to change cartridges regularly.

Befit Shower Filter $54.95

This economical yet high-quality unit gives you a chlorine-free shower. Features patented Chlogon media plus KDF (a copper and zinc alloy that uses an ion-exchange process to remove chemicals) to reduce this harmful gas, as well as the most common heavy metals, including copper, lead and mercury. Has massaging showerhead with three settings (full, massage and combination); reversible cartridge allows you to backwash the filter to flush out sediment in between filter changes. Replace filter every 6 to 12 months.

Befit Refill Cartridge: $31.95

Aquasana® Shower Filters

Protect yourself from chloramines, formed when ammonia is added to chlorine. Many large municipalities now use this to treat the water supply. Aquasana's two-stage filter uses KDF to handle chlorine and some heavy metals, along with activated carbon to tackle other synthetic and volatile organic chemicals. Chloramine model adds special carbons to specifically work on this toxic brew. Massaging showerhead has two settings. Change filter every 6 to 12 months. Also available in hand-held version (bottom photo) with adjustable swivel and long hose for easy bathtub filling.

Books About Alkalinity

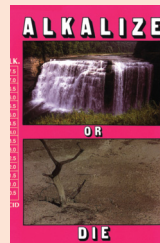

The pH Miracle

List Price $17, OUR PRICE $14.50

By Robert O. Young, PhD, and Shelley Redford Young. Ever since this book was featured on CBS' Early Show, it's been sweeping the country. The Youngs believe that pH balance is not only a health issue, but also the most important factor in weight loss—more important than calories, fat and cholesterol. They describe their program for restoring your body's pH balance, including what foods to eat, what to avoid and which supplements to take. Includes recipes. Revised and expanded. (432 pages)

Alkalize Or Die

List Price $14.95, OUR PRICE $13.50

By Theodore Baroody, ND, DC. This book discusses the idea that acidosis is the primary cause of ill health and that our diet contributes dramatically to creating an acid state in the body. Dr. Baroody shows how to correct this, using diet as the principal method. Includes recipes. (242 pages)

The Acid-Alkaline Diet

List Price $12.95, OUR PRICE $11.50

By Christopher Vasey, ND. A detailed discussion of food acidity vs. alkalinity. Describes the author's theory that some people are acidic even though their pH tests alkaline, and explains how to find out if you're in this category. Includes sample menus. Revised 2nd edition. (165 pages)

Alkalization

As the title of the book Alkalize or Die (see page 6) implies, the body's healthy state is an alkaline one. You may have heard the theory that disease stems from an acidic state in the body. It isn't difficult to see why our society has so much disease: Just look at what people eat and how our food is grown. One of the most popular drinks in the world, soda, is also one of the most acidic—2.5 pH for colas. We carry several products to help you measure your pH and to alkalinize your body.

AlkaStick Alkalizer $39.95

If you love drinking alkaline water, you can have it anywhere with the AlkaStick. Made of ceramic-coated minerals—maifanite, calcium and tourmaline—plus far-infrared stones, this portable alkalizing stick raises water's pH up to 9.5. Simply place in your water glass and leave in for five minutes. Great for traveling or anytime you're on the go. Lasts for 130 to 200 gallons. Surgical stainless-steel housing.

pH Plus Alkaline Drops $23.95

Alkalize your body with these drops. Just put two or more drops in an 8-oz. glass of water or other beverage. In addition to alkalinizing, this modified sodium silicate product provides the silica the body needs to help restore bone and connective tissue. Silica also enhances hair, nails and skin. 2-oz. drip bottle lasts two months.

6 bottles: $120 (You save $23.70)

CLO₂ (Chlorine Dioxide) $24.95

The strongest CLO₂ solution on the market! An ideal product to increase alkalinity, assist the body in detoxification and to protect against various organisms. This formula of CLO₂ (also known as Miracle Mineral Supplement or MMS) is a 28% solution; others are 2% or 7%. Other brands are in plastic, which can leach into a solution as strong as this one; our dropper bottle is glass. 4 ounces.

Life Water Ionizers

Discover the miracles of alkaline and acidic water! Use the alkaline water—a powerful antioxidant—for drinking and cooking. Benefits include increased hydration, improved cell function and detoxification. Acidic water, which is a strong antibacterial agent, is great for topical applications such as cleaning skin and healing cuts. All models are loaded with features including titanium plates coated with platinum (more plates means higher water flow and stronger acidic water), multiple pH levels, digital display, filter-life indicator, self-clean function, auto shutoff, and two filters that reduce heavy metals, chlorine and other chemicals. (Pre-filters are available for specific water needs.) Units make up

Even if you don't have allergies or asthma, you can benefit from air filtration. The air quality in the typical metropolitan area (and even in many small towns) ranges from questionable to downright toxic. Air filtration gives you the solution in the areas you can control: your home, office and car. We carry a variety of units, including HEPA filters for all-purpose purification; negative ionizers; germicidal units for viruses and bacteria, including Virus Zero and Airwise; and machines that combine these technologies. We also offer a hand-held allergy vacuum for dust mites and other small particulates; and masks for pollution-heavy and chemical-laden environments.

What Is HEPA?

Originally developed by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission to remove radioactive particles from the air, HEPA stands for "high-efficiency particulate arresting." This material must meet the standard of 99.97 percent filtering of particles down to .3 microns, and 95 percent of particulates .1 microns and smaller. These tiny particles include pet dander, dust, dust mites and pollen.

Austin HealthMate HEPA Filters

Breathe easier with this all-purpose, energy-efficient filter. HEPA tackles small particles such as dust, pet dander, mold spores, pollen and cigarette smoke, while activated carbon and zeolite work on chemical, gas and odor removal. Pre-filter takes care of medium and large particulates. Features three-speed air control and quiet motor that costs 50% less to operate than many other HEPAs. Draws air from all sides for placement flexibility, but sends filtered air out of only

The Ion Miracle $6.95
By Jean-Yves Cote

A short primer about the beneficial effects of ions on physical and mental well-being. Includes research summaries and how to get more ions in your daily life. (Booklet, 91 pages)

Which Air Filter Do I Need?

- If your main problem is particulates (allergens, dust, etc.), your best choice is a HEPA filter. See Airpura R600 and Austin.
- If you're concerned about bacteria, viruses, odors or mold, see Virus Zero, Airpura UV600 and Airwise; and Airpura V600 and T600 for specific odor issues.
- If your air quality is very good and you don't have allergies or asthma, but you still want fresher air , try the Vortex desktop ionizer.

What Is A Negative Ionizer?

Pollution, central HVAC systems, synthetic fibers and electrical devices create positive ions, which can irritate the body. Ionizers generate negative ions to recreate the proper atmospheric balance of negative to positive ions. These ions bind to pollutants and reverse their polarity so they drop to the nearest surface or are neutralized. The device creates a refreshing environment and a fresh feeling similar to country air or the beach. Users report an overall sense of well-being with this proportion of ions.

AirTamer Personal Ionizer $79.95

Wear this tiny unit for protection from stale indoor air no matter where you are.

Perfect for combating the recirculated, germ-loaded air on airplanes; we don't fly anywhere without ours! Operates on two CR-2025 coin-cell batteries (included) for more than 50 hours of use. Patented conductive-cord technology actually uses your body as a "counter electrode"—just make sure the cord is touching your body and the ion output increases! Wear around your neck or use the clip to attach it to a shirt pocket. Carbon-fiber brush generates up to 2 million negative ions per second. Outperforms other brands in number of cubic feet cleaned per hour. Measures 1½"W x ¾"D x 3"H; weighs 1.7 oz. Comes with carry case.

Environmental Testing

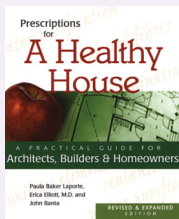

There is strong evidence that many people develop health problems from environmental factors. But finding the source of the problems, even with a sympathetic physician, is not always easy. Environmental testing is the first step toward determining what's going on in your home, whether you need to pursue professional testing, and what type of air and water filters to buy. Choose from a water test you can do at home and one you send to a lab. We also have test kits for mold and radon.

PurTest™ Home Water Analysis Kit $34.95

Easy, in-home, do-it-yourself kit measures water contaminants. This convenient package contains two tests each for nitrates, nitrites, chlorine, iron, copper, pH, alkalinity and hardness; and one test each for bacteria, lead and pesticides (atrazine and simazine). Simply take samples of your water, insert the testing paper and match the colors to the charts. The kits have been laboratory certified for accuracy and give clear, easy-to-read results. Non-toxic test ingredients. Includes information booklet and toll-free hotline you can call any time for free advice on water problems and treatment.

MoldCheck Test Kit

A simple way to detect mold. Toxic molds have become more prevalent in homes because modern construction does not always use mold-resistant materials. Moist climates also can cause mold indoors. Easy-to-use kit tells you if you have mold and how much you have. Simply place mold film in the suspect areas, let it sit for an hour, add activation solution and place it in the incubator box. Three days later, you'll know if you have mold. Kit contains 5, 10 or 15 mold-spore detection films, activation liquid, liquid spreader, swab, incubator box, booklet on how to inspect your house, and Clean-Up Guide with tips on safely cleaning mold.

Keyrad Radon Test Kit $29.95

No need to worry about radon again! Radon gas, created by the natural breakdown of uranium in rocks and soil, can seep into the home through cracks and other small spaces. Radon also can enter a home through well water. High levels can cause lung cancer, as well as cell and tissue damage. This mail-in kit contains materials for detecting radon in your home over a 48- to 72-hour period. Includes gas collection canister and return mail pouch; the lab sends you a report with the radon level and potential health risk. Lab fees (except shipping) included.

EMF & Geopathic Stress Protection

Our daily needs are much more dependent on electronic devices than they were just a few years ago. Most homes have multiple computers, TVs and other equipment. We talk and text constantly on our cell phones, and the number of cell towers is rapidly increasing. While these products can make our lives easier, they also emit magnetic fields and radio frequencies (EMFs). Many people are concerned about links between these energy fields and various health problems, including cancer, miscarriages, fatigue, headaches and chronic stress.

Problems can also stem from geopathic stress zones, areas of the earth where underground structural anomalies (such as water currents and fault lines) combine with other waves to create a harmful environment that can stress the body. The products in this section are for people who believe there is enough evidence that EMFs and geopathic stress contribute to health problems and want to reduce their risk.

The first task in assessing this area is to determine where the problems originate. We have electromagnetic field meters (also called Gaussmeters) that can detect these energies. By popular request, we're introducing a radio-frequency meter to measure emissions from smart meters and other RF sources. We also carry the Stetzer system, consisting of a meter that measures radio frequencies in a building's electrical lines and filters to reduce the fields. For protection in the home or office, we have several devices that work in various ways, such as by interacting with your own biological energy (Clarus products, Tecno); blanketing an area with a beneficial field (Total Shield, Mini and Micro Harmonizer); and blocking harmful energies (AegisGuard and our new RF-shielding material). For handling geopathic stress, the Total Shield has geopathic stress reduction as an option. Dowsing rods and pendulums can help locate stress zones.

For personal protection, we offer small, portable items that can be worn or carried anywhere, including the Micro Harmonizer and pendants such as Clarus Q-Link, Shuzi, Quantum and the new Orgone Pendants.

What is considered a safe limit of EMF exposure? Many experts recommend keeping one's chronic exposure under 3 milliGauss. Others think it is much safer to keep day-to-day exposures to less than 1 milliGauss. We agree with this lower limit.

MSI EMF Meter $229.95

Gigahertz Solutions RF Meter $429.95

Detect harmful radio frequencies and find out where they're coming from!

NEW!

As the RF problem has increased, we've received many requests for a meter that measures this type of energy. Now we've found a high-quality meter that gauges emissions from smart meters, cell phones, most cordless phones, Wi-Fi, cell towers, computer routers and anything else that generates RFs in the range of 800 MHz to 2.7 GHz. Gigahertz Solutions' HF35C Meter features two sensitivity settings: "Fine" measurement range offers higher sensitivity and allows for accurate detection of lower-level signals; "coarse" range covers stronger readings. Digital display with audio tones help identify the field sources. Sturdy antenna is designed for directional detection of RF waves. Runs on 9V battery (included). 2-year warranty. Weighs 8.8 ounces.

CellSensor™ EMF Meter $34.95

Our economy meter finds your home's "hot spots."

The best-selling CellSensor features a dual scale—one for EMFs (fields from electrical appliances) and one for microwave frequencies to measure cell phone emissions; "normal" and "high" sensitivity settings; audio signal with volume control and flashing light to indicate EMFs; and remote probe with 2-foot cord to easily find "hot spots." Measures up to 50 milliGauss for EMFs, 10 milliWatts for cell phones. Operates on 9-volt battery (not included); weighs only 4 ounces.

EMF & Geopathic Stress Protection

Stetzerizer Radio-Frequency Meter & Filters

Measure and protect from “dirty current.” Every time you plug in an electrical or electronic device, you create radio frequency (RF), and the entire building wiring acts as an antenna for these frequencies. At the same time, you’re receiving these frequencies from your local power company. Studies have shown that this particular type of RF energy (from 10kHz to 100kHz), also called “dirty current,” can contribute to health problems.

(Studies and research papers are on our Website, www.cutcat.com.) Stetzer offers a meter to detect this type of radiation, as well as filters to reduce it. Just plug in the meter; if it reads 30 or above, you need a filter in that outlet. Then take another meter reading and you’ll see a lower number. In most cases, about 20 filters are required for an average-size house. The filter looks like an AC adapter and plugs directly into the outlet. (See the books Dirty Electricity and Overpowered, below, if you’re interested in learning more about this topic.) This meter measures the RFs in the electrical lines, from 10kHz to 100kHz. (Note that this differs from the Gigahertz RF Meter on page 12, which measures the RF that’s broadcasted into an area from 800 MHz to 2.7 GHz.) Smart meters, compact fluorescent bulbs and dimmer switches worsen the RF problem; in addition to adding to RFs in the lines, they also broadcast it out into the home. Replacing CF bulbs and dimmer switches will ease the problem. Doing the same to smart meters is also important, but this may not be possible in your area. (The DVD Take Back Your Power, below, gives advice on this.) In addition, when the Stetzer filters first came on the market 15 years ago, consumers who bought Stetzer filters felt better quickly. Now, this isn’t always the case because devices broadcast much stronger RFs, and some people may need more filters to get the same effect. Because the environment both inside and outside your home can change, Stetzer recommends periodic checking with the meter.

health and environmental effects, steps you can take in your daily life to reduce exposure, and how to lobby government and industry to keep yourself and your family safe. Scientist Martin Blank, who has studied this subject for 30 years, explains how we can balance the negative effects of EMFs while coexisting with our cell phones and other devices. (269 pages)

Dirty Electricity And Electromagnetic Radiation $34.95

By Donna Fisher
An electrically sensitive consumer tells the story of how she was affected by radio frequencies (RFs, also called “dirty electricity”) and how Stetzerizer filters helped her. The book includes recent research into RFs and new alternative cancer treatments using electromagnetic energy. Includes case studies of people who have used

Stetzers successfully. (Note: The author has no connection to the company; she wanted to tell her story so that others like her can be helped.) (239 pages)

See page 36 for new book on HAARP!

Evidence Of Harm DVD $19.95

Two presentations from the 2011 Wireless Safety Summit in Washington, DC: Dr. Martin Blank, professor of physiology and cellular biophysics at Columbia University Medical Center and author of Overpowered (at left), speaks about his research on microwave radiation’s effects on DNA. Dr. Devra Davis, executive director of the Environmental Health Trust, discusses the health effects of cell phones, including reproductive issues. She also reports on corporate and government efforts to suppress this type of research. (94 minutes)

Take Back Your Power DVD $19.95

Directed by Josh del Sol
This new documentary tells the truth about the dangers of smart meters. Take Back Your Power investigates the claimed benefits and apparent risks of this ubiquitous “smart” grid program. The film includes interviews with EMF experts, including Dr. Dietrich Klinghardt, who has found that chronic fatigue, autism, cancer and other diseases can be traced back to electromagnetic-field exposure. With compelling insight from whistle-blowers, researchers, government employees, lawyers, doctors and environmentalists, the film explores corporate and government corruption, as well as the erosion of our rights in the name of “smart” and “green.” (102 minutes)

NEW!

TOTAL SHIELD PRODUCTS

Neutralize the effects of EMFs! The device uses a special coil antenna to produce a 7.83-Hz field, which is the Earth's natural field (also called the Schumann resonance). This positive force saturates an area and dilutes negative energies. Helps reduce the effects of computers, TVs, microwave ovens and other household appliances, even power lines outside your house. Three versions: Total Shield for the whole house, Mini and Micro for portability.

Now
With HAARP
Protection!

Total Shield

Blanket your entire home with a beneficial energy field. The Total Shield works on a space of 20,000+ square feet and comes in four coil strengths, with each additional coil adding 50% more intensity. (Stronger models are for people who are sensitive to EMFs, who have a large number of electronic devices in their home or office, or who live very close to power lines or stations.) Now with HAARP protection: The military's High-Frequency Active Auroral Research Program beams high-frequency waves into the ionosphere; these waves haven't been proven safe. (See new book on page 36.) The Total Shield also works on geopathic stress by reversing and retransmitting the waves. Colored lights blink at the Schumann resonance and can be used for stress relief or biofeedback. Operates on included AC adapter. Measures 9½"H x 4½"W. See our Website, www.cutcat.com, for larger agricultural models that increase crop yields and balance the soil.

Two Coils: $420 Four Coils: $550

Mini Harmonizer

Great for protection when you travel, this portable, rechargeable device works on a room of up to 100 square feet. Take the Mini Harmonizer to the office, use in your hotel or carry it with you from room to room at home. A 15-hour charge lasts from 40–48 hours. Switch between 7.83-Hz setting, which corresponds to the alpha brain state (conscious yet relaxed), and 3.91-Hz theta state (deeper relaxation). Measures 2¾"W x 3¾"L x 1"D; comes with AC adapter. Stronger 4X model is four times more powerful than the standard unit. The 4X model's charge lasts for 24 hours.

Mini Harmonizer: $250 4X Mini Harmonizer: $290

Micro Harmonizer $285

Take this miniature unit with you anywhere! Designed to be worn next to the body, the Micro Harmonizer can be placed in a pocket or worn on clothing with the attached clip. Switch between 7.83-Hz setting, which corresponds to the alpha brain state (conscious yet relaxed), and 3.91-Hz theta state (deeper relaxation). Measures 2¼"L x 1½"W x ¾"D; runs on 3-volt lithium watch battery (#CR2032). Weighs 1.3 ounces.

Biomagnetic Research Protective Devices

G-33 Smog Buster,
3-Hole Resonator, Tri-Pak

Four value-priced items to reduce the impact of EMFs and geopathic stress. Biomagnetic Research products contain the patented Crystal Catalyst, a unique quartz ceramic material that collects electromagnetic energy and rebroadcasts it so that it is not harmful to you. The products' molecular structure resonates to actually alter the frequencies of negative energies before they hit the body. All items (except Energy Harmonizer) attach to any surface with adhesive backing. More Biomagnetic Research products are online at cutcat.com.

Three-Hole Resonator $17

Small blue disc attaches to appliances. Use on computer monitor, microwave oven, TV screen, ballast end of fluorescent lights, even a water heater.

Tri-Pak Resonator $48

Triangle made of soft material is designed for fuse boxes and for carrying on airplanes to counteract radiation. Can also be placed anywhere in the home for spot-reducing problem areas.

G-33 Electronic Smog Buster $85

A larger disc for areas with stronger fields or wherever greater protection is required.

Energy Harmonizer $48

Balances geopathic zones. Hang this attractive disc using the included hook and it looks like an ornament! Can also be placed on any surface or under your mattress. Mirrored surface with amber-colored design holds a quartz ceramic bead.

Energy Harmonizer

Orgone Energy Pendants $50

Harness nature's own energy! Wilhelm Reich did extensive research on the vital energy found everywhere in nature, which he called "orgone." Karl Hans Welz then invented organite, a polyester resin mixed with metal that conducts energy similar to that of Reich's machine. We recently found a local artisan to make these pendants, which resemble amber. They're made of resin with a quartz crystal, and are flecked with gold- and copper-colored metal pieces for an attractive addition to your jewelry collection. Comes on matching silk cord. Two shapes: rectangle or teardrop.

To dows is to search with the aid of a hand-held instrument, such as a forked stick, a pendulum or L rods, for any substance—water flowing in underground streams, a vein of minerals, a pool of oil, a buried utility pipe, even a missing item or person. It is also the primary method of determining geopathic zones. Also called “water witching” or “divining,” dowsing is a powerful tool in trained hands. We offer books and tools to help you understand the process. To learn more, join the American Society of Dowsers and attend its dowsing schools.

Biomagnetism is a growing area in the United States holistic marketplace. While the American pioneers of this science, Albert Roy Davis and Walter Rawls, made many discoveries starting in the 1930s, other countries implemented their research for health applications. Biomagnetism is used in France, Russia, China and India, to name just a few, and is a billion-dollar industry with government sanction in Japan.

We carry a wide range of magnets in many shapes and sizes, plus magnetic jewelry, supporters and mattress pads. All our magnets are magnetized with biomagnetic north pole on one face and biomagnetic south pole on the other. They are also marked on one or both sides (depending on the magnet), so you'll always be sure you're using the correct side. Generally, north is used to sedate (e.g., for pain and inflammation) and south to stimulate.

An important note on magnetic poles: Biomagnetic poles are the opposite of geographic poles. Most physics books and the National Bureau of Standards designate the north-seeking pole as north and the south-seeking pole as south. However, biomagnetic north is the south-seeking pole (remember, opposites attract) and biomagnetic south pole is the north-seeking pole. Therefore, if a magnet points toward the north, that side of the magnet is actually the south side.

CERAMIC MAGNETS

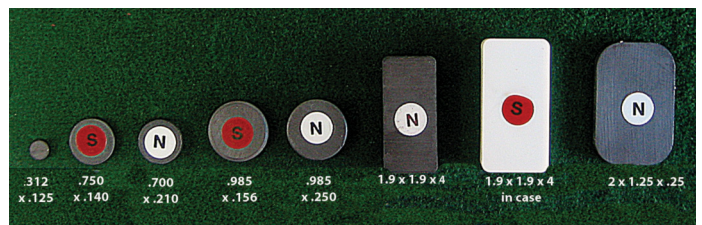

Use these versatile magnets anywhere on your body. They're economically priced and come in a variety of shapes, sizes and thicknesses for different applications. All ceramics have an average Gauss strength of approximately 3,800. (Please note that this is an average rating; small magnets have a lower Gauss, while larger ones are higher.) Several sizes are available in a permanent hard case to prevent breakage and chipping.

Magnetico Mattress Pads

Close-up view of Magnetico magnets

The only mattress pad that delivers a consistently pure negative (north pole) magnetic field, distributed evenly over the entire bed. Other pads have design flaws that cause gaps where positive (south pole) energy, which can be harmful, enters the body. On a Magnetico, hundreds of 3/8" x 7/8" x 1 7/8" rectangular ceramic magnets are arranged so that the pad acts like one large magnet, replicating the Earth's natural magnetic field. The pad (1 1/2" thick for Classic, 1.375" for Core) fits under your mattress for a consistent north pole field.

Available in several strengths; prices below are for Classic 5-Gauss.

See our Website for stronger pads; these have a 10-gauss field and can be put together for a 20-Gauss strength.

Shipping costs vary by location and model; call or e-mail for quotes. Magnetico also makes custom pads for cribs, children's beds and in specific sizes. Please note that Magnetico imposes a 10 percent restocking fee on returns; see Website or call for return-policy details.

Full-Spectrum Lighting

Dr. John Ott, a world-renowned time-lapse photographer and light researcher, discovered the benefits of full-spectrum lighting while shooting time-lapse pictures for a movie. He spent many days filming the development of a pumpkin from seed to self-pollination. While all the staminate (male) blossoms developed properly under cool-white fluorescent lights, the pistillate (female) blossoms dried up and fell off the vine before pollination. The next time Dr. Ott filmed this process, he changed the fluorescent tubes from cool white to daylight white, and the opposite happened: All the pistillates developed properly, but the staminates shriveled and fell off. Only when he used full-spectrum light did all the seeds develop properly.

This began Dr. Ott's research on light and its effects on plants and the human body. (Much of this research is discussed in his book and DVD, listed on page 21.) Dr. Ott's first product was the Vita Lite, which he later improved by increasing the life of the ultraviolet (UV) component and adding lead tape around the ends to reduce X-radiation. Our fluorescent ceiling tubes (available online) have lead tape wrapped around the ends; we don't know of any other distributor who sells them this way!

Because plastic diffusers (covers), which typically are used with fluorescent-tube ceiling fixtures, block most of the benefits of full-spectrum light, we suggest replacing the covers with parabolic "egg crate" diffusers (open-grid covers) to allow full-spectrum light to get through. Diffusers are available at electrical supply stores.

Although true full-spectrum light is possible only with fluorescent bulbs, Chromalux bulbs are the next best thing if you want regular incandescent light. We also have a light box for seasonal affective disorder.

Chromalux Energy-Efficient Bulbs

Long-lasting Chromalux is the closest you can get to natural light in an incandescent bulb. If you prefer non-fluorescent bulbs or if a spiral fluorescent won't fit in your light fixture, this is the best choice. The "color-corrected" bulb comes from Finland, "Land of the Midnight Sun," where it's dark for six months of the year. These glare-free bulbs are made of special composition glass that contains neodymium, a rare earth element used in lasers. This element is able to absorb yellow and other dulling components of the spectrum. As a result, the light is white and purified, allowing the values of the violet, blue, green and red components to be strengthened without producing an imbalance of one color over another. Colors appear brighter and more vivid; great for eyestrain-free reading and computer work. Silver inner reflector increases lumen output; chromed brass socket prevents corrosion. You'll save energy too: Standard bulbs last approximately 700 hours;

Chromalux bulbs last for 4,000 hours! Globes are clear; other bulbs have pink frosted exterior. Get a discount on a six-pack!

Aurora SAD Light Box $299

Beat the blues! The Aurora light box is ideal for treating seasonal affective disorder (SAD), also known as "winter depression." Two 55-watt full-spectrum bulbs provide a powerful 10,000 lux, color-balanced and much brighter than standard indoor light (which can be as little as 50 lux). Flicker-free light. White metal box is covered by a glare-free lens. Measures 23"W x 12½"H x 4"D; weighs 10 pounds. Can be wall mounted (hardware not included) or placed on any surface. Convenient carry handle. Bulbs last for 20,000 hours. (Shipping: $25)

Depending on the quantity, we can special-order other bulb sizes and halogen versions of these bulbs upon request.

Important Notice About Chromalux

Because of upcoming Federal light-bulb regulations, regular incandescent bulbs are being phased out in favor of LEDs, halogen bulbs and compact fluorescents. Chromalux is considered a specialty bulb, so most of the products won't be affected by these regulations. However, Chromalux is also making halogen versions of its bulbs. They are the same shape as the current bulbs; only the filament is different. These can be special-ordered with a minimum order of a dozen. Pricing varies by size; call or e-mail for details.

Light & Color Therapy

Color and light healing have been practiced for centuries. Over the years, researchers have discovered the use of specific wavelengths for body work. Some of these "phototherapy" units provide electronic stimulation using monochromatic red light (660 nanometers), which studies have shown is the most effective at sedating pain and speeding up healing. Other devices use different colors to address health conditions and moods. Because each color vibrates at a specific frequency, as do the body's glands and organs, colors can be matched to specific parts of the body. Colors also stimulate the pineal glands, which regulate hormone function.

At one time, these technologies could be delivered only with a soft laser, which is restricted to medical supervision. But with recent improvements in light-emitting diodes (LEDs), they can be provided in a form anyone can use. In addition to pain relief, applications include acupuncture point stimulation, meridian balancing, stress relief, mood enhancement and facial toning. We carry a variety of products, including hand-held light therapy units, colored glasses and light therapy pads. You can see additional light and color therapy items and books on our Website, www.cutcat.com.

Color Therapy Glasses

Reap the benefits of color therapy just by wearing these glasses! When color signals are sent to the brain, they stimulate the pineal glands, which regulate hormone function. In addition, each color vibrates at a specific frequency, as do the body's glands and organs. Color glasses can be used for a variety of purposes, including relaxation, reducing stress, boosting energy and easing depression. Many people also use them for physical conditions. Glasses are sold individually; in a set of 7 colors (violet, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange and red) and a set of 9 colors (adding magenta and turquoise). Plastic frames and lenses. Comes with color reference sheet. For more information on what color therapy glasses can do, read one of our books on color, or go to our Website, www.cutcat.com, to download the color sheet.

Anyone can learn bodywork techniques for use on both themselves and others. Acupressure, which is like acupuncture without needles, is based on the ancient Chinese theory that the body has energy points (meridians) which can affect organs. Pressure is applied to these points to move energy and bring about beneficial changes in the body. Acupressure is also used for muscle work.

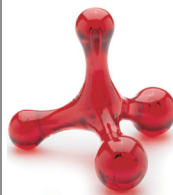

Myotherapy is an American technique developed by the late Bonnie Prudden, who found that the systematic application of pressure over a wide area can release muscle spasms and eliminate painful conditions. We offer books, videos and tools to help you learn and practice these two types of bodywork, as well as massage and reflexology products.

Backnobber Retail $41.95, OUR PRICE $34.95

Give yourself a massage! The Backnobber's S-shaped curves let you apply deep pressure to stiff, tense and painful muscles. It's designed to be hooked over the shoulder or under the arm so that the end can be pressed into the muscles of the upper or lower back or neck. Made of durable polymer composite. Breaks down into two pieces for convenient storage or travel. Comes with 35-page illustrated guide. Colors vary depending on current stock.

Jacknobber $8.95

apply deep pressure to muscular trigger points. Place it against a wall or the back of an upholstered chair, and lean into it. Or use it on someone else! Made of polymer composite; colors vary depending on current stock.

Foot Massager $12

Sound Healing

Vibrational healing can have powerful effects on body, mind and spirit. Tuning forks enhance many treatment methods and are especially effective when applied to acupuncture points. The instruments access and nourish the chi (life force) flowing through the body. The forks' sound waves work like kinetic energy, moving disharmony and tension from your body while restoring a sense of well-being. We offer Ohm Therapeutics' book-and-CD set to teach you the process, as well as tuning forks for different uses. More sound healing products are on our Website, cutcat.com.

The field of mind-body healing (also called psychoneuro-immunology) focuses on the connection between the two. Western medicine takes the Cartesian view that mind and body are two separate, mutually exclusive entities. In recent years, more people have begun to embrace the idea that there is indeed a mind-body connection.

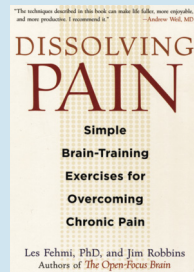

OPEN FOCUS

Beat stress and pain with this method! Les Fehmi, a pioneer in the biofeedback field, has spent more than 40 years showing people how to switch from a “narrow” focus—a tense and stressful mode—to an “open” one in which the senses are fully engaged. This wide-open state has powerful effects on both mind and body. These books and CDs show you how to put the theory into practice.

HUMIC AND FULVIC ACID

Humate is extracted from this mineral-rich shale

Try this next time you have a virus! Humic acid comes from humate, a type of shale formed from fossilized plant matter. Humate aids in composting (breaking down other organic matter) and transferring nutrients from the earth to living organisms. It contains two elements: humic acid and fulvates (fulvic acid). Scientists have found that when humates are ingested, the humic acid places a coating around viruses, preventing them from adhering to cells. Fulvic acid acts as a mineral carrier and chelator, helping carry toxins away from your cells while speeding up the delivery of minerals and other supplements. Both acids are a rich source of nutrients, containing 75 minerals and amino acids for energy and overall wellness.

hyG Ionic Toothbrush

This special toothbrush helps reduce plaque. The hyG Ion works on the principle that your teeth are negatively charged and plaque is positively charged: Opposites attract, so plaque adheres to teeth. The hyG's lithium battery gives a constant flow of positively charged ions that temporarily reverses your teeth's polarity. When this positive charge is sent to the teeth, they repel the positively charged plaque—which is then attracted to the negatively charged brush (see diagram). Push-button battery tester built into handle; just press to see if battery is still active. Comes with five snap-on brush heads: Toothbrush has a long-bristle brush; you can choose from long bristle or rounded bristle for the other four brush heads and for replacement brush heads.

HealthStep $69.95 Two or more, $59.95 each Spend less time in the bathroom!

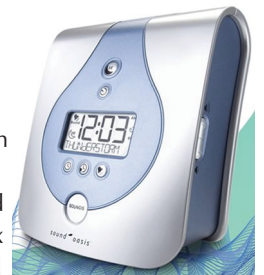

Until the mid-1850s, people squatted when nature called. Then the first toilet was invented—but it was not designed to support the abdominal area during elimination. Sitting upright causes excessive strain on the abdominal muscles and, more important, incomplete elimination or constipation. People often spend a long time in the bathroom because the sitting position makes elimination difficult. (For an article about this subject, go to our Website, www.cutcat.com.) The HealthStep places the body into a more natural position that is similar to a squat. Sturdy plastic step has slanted footrests that allow you to sit in the proper position. Fits around toilet base. FDA-approved. $14 ship charge.

Why Is Far-Infrared Heat Better?

Conventional heat sources warm only the outer layers of the skin, penetrating only up to 3mm (³/₂₅ of an inch). Infrared heat penetrates more deeply—up to three inches. Blood flow increases to the affected area for faster healing and pain relief. In a regular sauna, convection (air currents) and conduction (contact of the hot air on skin) produce temperatures of 180° to 235°F. This excessive air heats skin only superficially. Infrared saunas heat objects directly without heating the air in between, making them more efficient at entering the body. Less than 20% of infrared energy heats the air, leaving more than 80% to be directly converted to heat in our bodies at temperatures ranging from 110° to 150°.

Needak Rebounders

You won't find another way to exercise that's this fun and this healthy! When NASA studied the rebounder (mini-trampoline) for use in its astronaut training program, it discovered that users expended up to 68 percent more energy than with jogging. Every cell in the body gets exercise from the gravitational forces (also called G-forces) that are applied during jumping; research has shown that high G-forces strengthen cells and the lymph system. There's also greatly reduced risk of the stress injuries that can result from many other forms of exercise. Cheap rebounders from big-box stores simply can't compete on quality! Needak's mat is made of a sturdy material called Permatron, attached to a heavy steel frame with 36 durable springs. Legs fold under for storage under a bed or behind a door. Soap Nuts Detergent Substitute Wash your clothes without detergent—for less money! Soap Nuts are the dried fruit of the Nepalese soapberry tree (similar to the lychee). When the nuts get wet, they release saponin, a natural cleaner. Simply put a few soap nuts into the included cotton sack and drop it in your laundry. Your clothes come out clean, vibrant and soft. Can be used on all fabrics and colors; won't leave any scent on clothes. You can even use the nuts to make a liquid concentrate that makes a great cleaner when mixed with water. Per-load cost is a fraction of detergent! (Note: This product is a fruit, not a nut, and is safe for people with nut allergies.) Trial bag does 4 to 6 loads; 8-ounce bag does 87 loads; 1.1-lb. bag lasts for 175 loads.

Trial bag of four nuts, $2.50; 8-ounce bag, $11.95;
1.1-lb. bag, $19.95
