

HOW SAFE IS YOUR DRINKING WATER?

Is the quality and safety of your drinking water important to you and your family?

Low-level water contamination is widespread as indicated by the EPA and Environmental Working Group. A complete analysis will allow you to make informed decisions about treating your water supply.

Do you know the level of exposure you and your family may be experiencing on a daily basis? A complete analysis will provide you "peace of mind" and information necessary to determine water treatment options.

Fact... Lead in your water can damage the nervous system and reduce the intelligence capabilities of children.

Fact... Bacteria and/or high sulfate levels have adverse effects on the gastrointestinal system.

Fact... Atrazine and other common herbicides, industrial chemicals and pesticides can cause tumor growth.

Fact... Municipal systems are only responsible for the water quality leaving the treatment facility, not the water you drink in your home.
